The missing link

For millennia man has sought to pair the pleasures of penetration with that of P-spot play. Finally his search ends with the Lovehoney Wowzer 7 Function Double Cock Ring & Vibrating Butt Plug, a twin ring that sits either side of his balls to aid stronger erections, a slender butt plug that inserts anally, and not one but two vibrating bullets to really get the party started.

How to use your cock ring and butt plug

- Twist open the base of the vibrators in an anticlockwise direction and remove the white battery protector tabs. Push the bases back on and twist clockwise to lock shut.
- Slot one bullet into the sleeve of the top cock ring, and the other into the base of the butt plug.
- Apply water-based lubricant around the butt plug, ridged stimulator and twin rings. Slide the cock rings down to the base of your erect penis, and then stretch the larger ring around your balls. Gently insert the butt plug.
- Activate the vibrations by pressing the buttons on the base once, and continue pressing to scroll through the 2 speeds and 5 patterns. Press and hold down the buttons to switch the vibrations off.
- Clean after use with sex toy cleaner and leave to dry until next time.
- If you're not going to use your vibrator for a few days, remove the batteries.
