Penis Bumper Set

All bodies are beautiful, but sometimes a difference in size can get in the way of an intimate moment. When worn on the penis or used with an insertable sex toy, these stretchy bumper rings help to reduce the depth of penetration.

That means the wearer won't have to worry about going too deep, and their partner can relax and enjoy the moment in comfort. There are three rings in this set, so you can stack them to find the depth that's right for you.

- 3 x stretchy, cushioned bumper rings to reduce penetration depth during intercourse
- Mix-and-match system helps you achieve the ideal comfort level for you and your partner
- Can also be used to reduce the insertable length of a sex toy
- Stretch-to-fit design for comfort and to suit most sizes
- Includes a handy storage bag
